Silent Prayer

Call to Worship: (adapted from Acts 2: 42 – 47)

L: The early believers in Jerusalem devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching, to the community, to their shared meals, and to their prayers.

P: Every day, they met together in the temple and ate together in their homes. They shared food with gladness and simplicity.

L: All the believers were united and they shared everything.

P: They would sell possessions and pieces of property and distribute the proceeds to everyone who needed them.

L: A sense of awe came over all of them as God performed many wonders and signs through the apostles.

P: And as they demonstrated God's goodness to everyone the Lord increased the size of the community on a daily basis.
